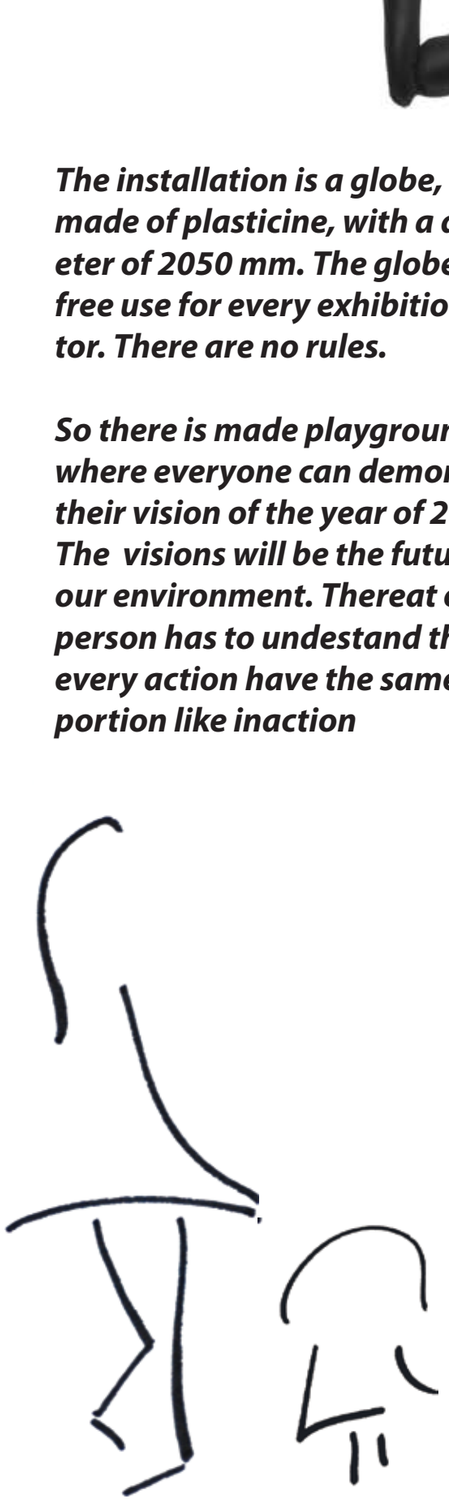
DESIGN 2050

The installation is a globe, which is made of plasticine, with a diameter of 2050 mm. The globe is in a free use for every exhibition visitor. There are no rules.


So there is made playground, where everyone can demonstrate their vision of the year of 2050. The visions will be the future of our environment. Thereat every person has to undestand that every action have the same proportion like inaction